Context of the research activity

Motivation and objectives of the research in this field	The researches concern: Sustainable infrastructures (re-use, recycling, etc.) , Multipurpose pavements (photocatalytic pav.), new technologies for infrastructures, LCA (Lyfe Cycle Analysis), Pavement Management System, materials performance evaluation; applied geological and hydro geological analysis of the evolution of the slopes dynamics; the hydrogeological risk analysis correlated with excavation of tunnels; the study of water circulation in rock masses linked with environmental and civil engineering problems.
Methods and techniques that will be developed and used to carry out the research	Researches are developed at all levels: analytical, in situ and in lab experimental/instrumental (refraction seismic profiling, electric resistivity tomography, NAT- Nottingham Asphalt Tester), numerical (UDEC, Modflow, Ansys, Abaqus).
Educational objectives	The main objective is to form scientists or high level technicians in the engineering geology and transportation fields. In particular as regards the hydrogeological problems and road materials.
Job opportunities	Main opportunities in the job market include Universities, Research Centers, top level management in Authorities involved in environmental policy, and senior consultants for engineering companies.
